8. Relevant Rules and Time Requirements

(1) The competition rules will be based on the “Rules for International Taolu Competition” endorsed by the IWUF in 1999. These Rules can be obtained at www.akwf.com

(2) For those wishing to compete in Contemporary Wushu events and Contemporary Tai Chi Freestyle events:

- The competition rules will be based on the “Rules for International Taolu Competition” endorsed by the IWUF in 2005. These rules can be obtained at www.iwuf.org
- The Scoring Method and Criteria for Optional Events will be implemented.
- Degree of Difficulty movements are only required for Chang Quan, Nan Quan and Taiji Quan and only for the Adult age division.
 - The athletes can choose the degree of difficulty of movements of categories A and B. If they choose the degree of difficulty of movements of category C, the value will be awarded according to the value of degree of difficulty of movements of category B.
 - At the same category of degree of difficulty, the movement with the same degree of difficulty can be done two times at most, but the movement with degree of difficulty of connecting movements cannot be repeated.
 - The athletes are requested to fill out the Registration Form for Movements with Degree of Difficulty and counter-signed by his/her Coach before submitting it together with other necessary forms by the entry deadline.
- No requirements for compulsory movements in overall performance are made.
- No music is required.
- The competition shall be individual competition.
- The power of interpretation of the Rules rests solely with the Chief Referee.
- In the event of disagreement in the interpretation of the Rules, the Chinese Text shall prevail.

Note: the 2005 IWUF rules will only be used if sufficient competitors have interest and enough qualified judges are available. If these criteria are not met, all competitors will compete and be judged under the 1999 IWUF rules. No extra points will be given for degree of difficulty movements under 1999 IWUF rules.

(6) Appeals Jury:

All teams (clubs) prior to the competition shall nominate a ‘Team Manager’ and advise the competition organizing committee. This nominee shall be the only representative of that team or club to liaise with and/or lodge appeal with the Chief Judge.

Any appeal shall be in writing and be submitted to the Chief Judge within fifteen minutes after the conclusion of the event concerned. The appeal must set out the reason for the appeal; the competitors involved, and shall be accompanied by a fee of $100. This fee will be returned if the appeal is upheld. Each appeal is limited to one issue.

All appeals must be adjudicated on the same day as competition. If an appeal is upheld, then official positions that may affect competitors shall be advised through the Team Managers who must remain available until the appeal is completed. Any change of position that will incur medals or trophies to be returned will be the responsibility of the Team Managers. The Official Competition Referee in conjunction with the Competition organizer may only change records of the competition. The finding of the appeal by the Appeal Committee will be final.

The Appeals Committee will accept no appeal after the competition being declared closed.
